by Maranda Loughlin

My dad calls the kitchen...

The heart of the Home.

This has always felt true to me...

whether I am in his home...

or my own.

Through the years...

... My kitchen has grown...

There is the Loughlin's

FRIED BREAD & APPLE SAUCE

to hold many flavors.

And there is my mom's family, The Bennett's, known for their Butter & Artichoke Hearts over Scrabble games.

Through time

5'2"	M, 2006
4'8"	M, 2003
4'0"	M, 1996
3'9"	M, 1997

I've collected

More Kitchen Flavors.

My stepmom's Ham & Black eyed peas on New Years

FOR GOOD LUCK

My Grandma's Fudge &

My other grandma's peanut butter & apples at midnight.

SALT ON WATERMELON IN THE SUMMERS.

Each Kitchen...

owns a special Flavor...

Made up of... * *

Recipes in the pantry...

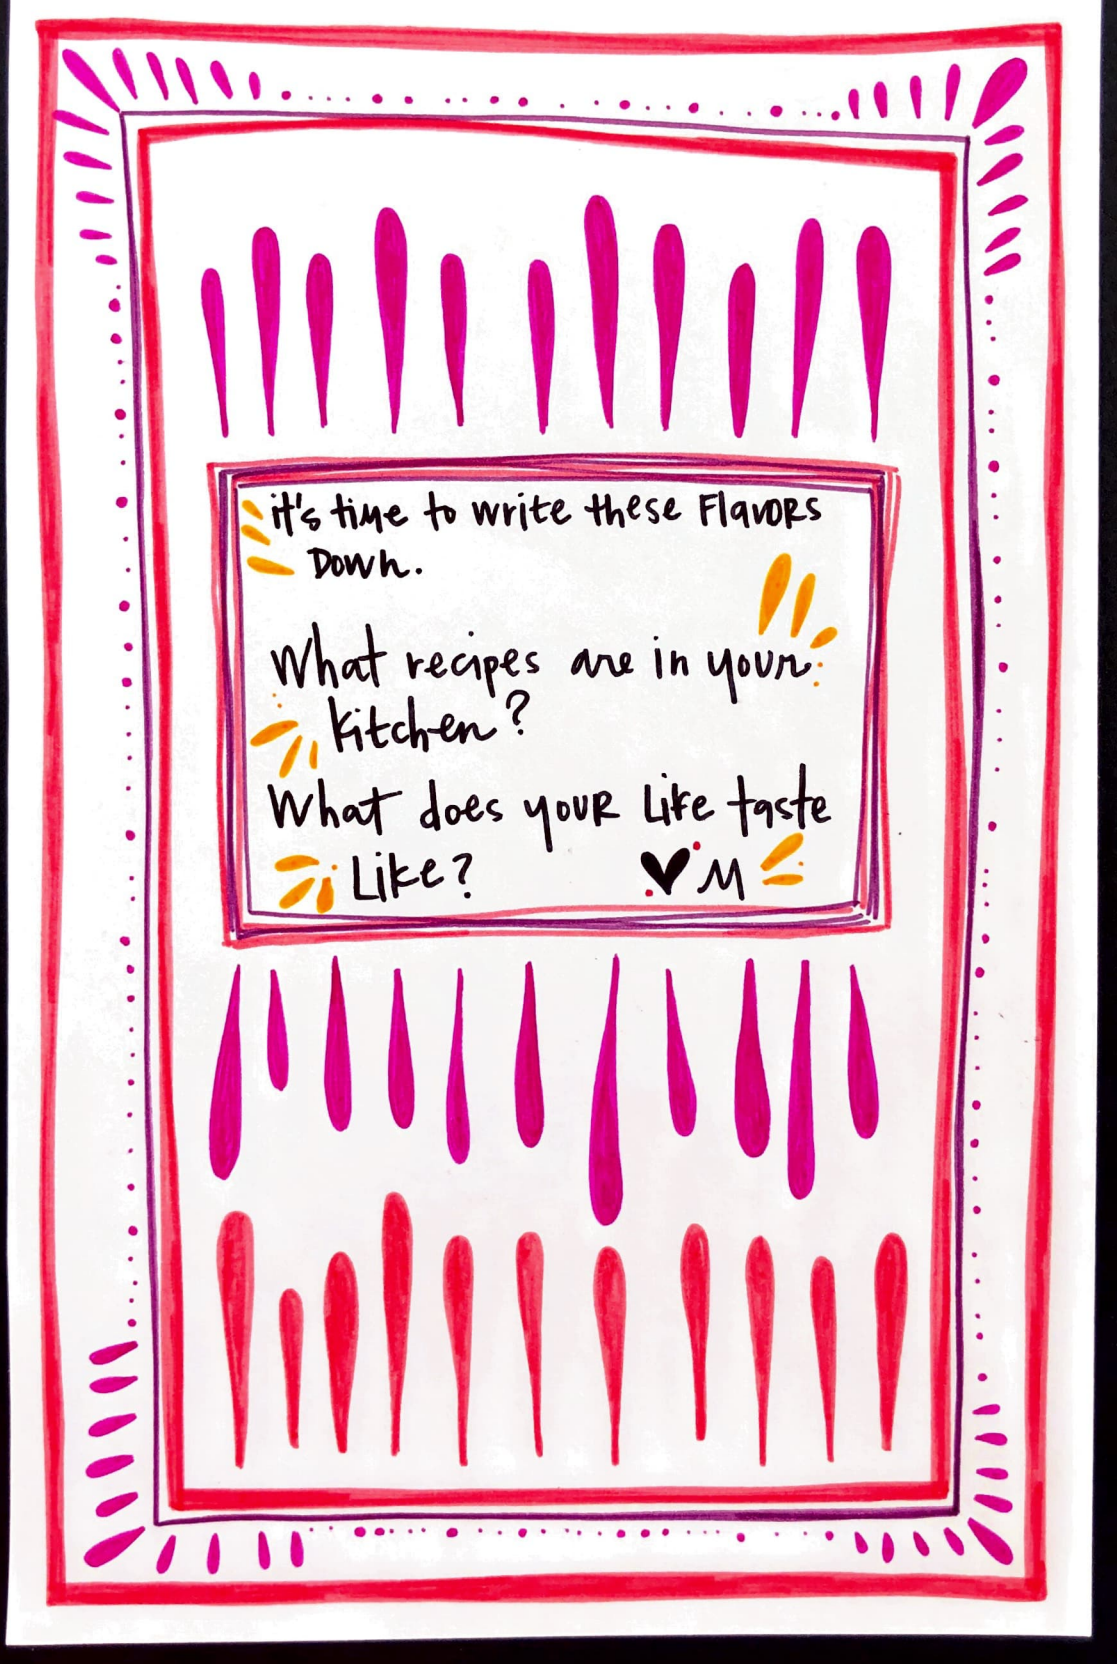

Family History * *

... some older than ...

* ourselves.

& maybe...

it's time to write these Flavors Down.
